

IIM-A final placements for PGP 2017 batch conclude; PwC, American Express among top recruiters

Our Bureau

Cluster 3 witnesses audit & advisory and tech companies making offers

Ahmedabad, March 3:

For the third cluster of the final placements at the Indian Institute of Management-Ahmedabad (IIM-A) for its 2017 batch of Post Graduate Programme (PGP), technology players along with audit & advisory and banking companies made recruitment offers.

With the third cluster placements taking place on February 19, the final placement process at the institute was concluded.

Among the top recruiters were PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC), banking leaders American Express and RBL, besides technology players Rivigo, Sprinklr and e-payment major MobiKwik.

The third cluster comprised of 6 cohorts, which included Advisory & Audit Consulting, Banking, Financial Services & Insurance, Edutech, Internet & E-commerce, Infrastructure & Core Manufacturing, and Technology.

EXL extended the highest number of offers in the technology cluster, with a total of six offers.

Team Rivigo commented on the recruitment experience at IIM-Ahmedabad. It said: "It was a great experience interviewing the best talent in the country, who are equally passionate to transform the Indian logistics industry."

The placements under Cluster 1 and Cluster 2 were conducted on February 14 and 16, respectively.

The second cluster consisted of five cohorts in the areas of Consumer Goods and Services, General Management, Niche Consulting, Pharmaceuticals and Technology with companies such as Airtel, Asian Paints, HUL, ITC, Nestlé, P&G, Reckitt Benckiser and Samsung making offers to the PGP students.

×

×

The first cluster held on February 14 saw some regular recruiters such as Accenture Strategy, A. T. Kearney, Bain & Co., Credit Suisse, Goldman Sachs, JP Morgan, McKinsey & Company, Oliver Wyman and others making offers.

(This article was published on March 3, 2017)